2. Entry fees are $5 per entry (including the pair classes) and must post marked by May 1. Late entries will be accepted, but entry fees will be doubled. Payment must accompany entries.
 - a. Mail Junior Show and Futurity entries and payment to CSBA, PO Box 722, Lakefield, MN 56150, or use the online entry form at www.columbia sheep.org.
3. A maximum of two entries per class and one entry per pair class may be entered.
 - a. Should a class be split into multiple classes, to accommodate numbers or age splits, an exhibitor is limited to two total entries for that particular class.
 - b. To be shown in the pair classes, both sheep must have been shown as individuals in their respective classes. Sibling junior members may not combine animals for pair classes.
4. Animals must be registered and registration certificates must be presented at check-in.
5. The CSBA states “A CSBA Junior member may exhibit sheep owned by a CSBA Senior member (as determined by the current ownership listed on the registration paper of the Columbia sheep), if the junior meets the definition of immediate family. The CSBA defines immediate family as a child, grandchild, great grandchild, sister, brother (which includes step, adopted, and foster) or first generation niece or nephew. The Junior member may exhibit said sheep as an immediate family member in CSBA sponsored events including the National Columbia Show and Sale and the All-American Junior Show.”
6. All sheep must have a flock tag in their ear that matches the private flock number officially recorded on the registration certificate.
7. Substitutions, within a class and between classes, may be made at check-in, prior to the determination of class breaks.
8. Classes will be divided if numbers justify class splits. Lamb classes will be split based on age.
9. Exhibitors may have other junior members assist them in showing. The registered owner must be engaged in showing and present in the show ring throughout the duration of the class. Failure to comply with this rule results in the loss of the placing and premium money for the animal.
10. If insufficient Junior members are available to assist when showing in pairs, adults will be allowed to assist.
11. Exhibitors should be professionally dressed for the show ring. Sweatpants, shorts, jeans with holes, etc. are not acceptable.
12. Exhibitors shall not wear any clothing or other articles (i.e, hats, monogrammed shirts) in the show ring that advertise a sheep flock, membership name, or related enterprise.
13. Exhibitors have five minutes to enter the show ring following the conclusion of the previous class. Judging will begin when this time expires. Entries not in the show ring will be left to the judge’s discretion.
14. All animals will stay in the ring until the judge completes verbal reasons.
