National Junior Columbia Association

Video Production Contest

Call for Submissions: Open from June 2019 until June 2020. Winners announced at 2020 NSS Banquet.

Judging:

Judging will be done by an independent panel familiar with the sheep industry.

Your video should be YOUR own work! It should tell the story of the Columbia breed of sheep in one of the three main areas of competition.

By submitting a video, you certify that your work is fully original and no one else has rights to it, but the association.

Videos will be reviewed for their story-telling along the three categories of the competition.

Judges are looking for original, fun videos. Videos that tell your involvement with Columbia sheep and the industry will be preferred.

Winners will be announced at the 2020 National Columbia Show and Sale Banquet.

AVAILABLE TO ALL MEMBERS OF THE JUNIOR COLUMBIA ASSOCIATION

Electronic Submissions ONLY!! Sent by June 10, 2020.

PROGRAM PURPOSE

To produce a video suitable for public viewing on YouTube related to Columbia sheep specifically and the production of Lamb and Wool using Columbia sheep.

Three categories for competition:

- 1) Promotion of the Columbia breed of sheep.
- 2) Promotion of Lamb and/or Wool (in general terms).
- 3) Promotion of your operation.

- Video will be no longer than 3 minutes.
- It is to include stills and moving pictures (i.e. video).
- It includes both the written and spoken word. (singing and music can be used, but are not substitutes for those.)
- All videos are to become the property of the Columbia Sheep Breeder's Association upon submission. All creative properties and interviews belong to the association for use as the CSBA sees fit in any of its or its relationship's (i.e. ASI's) promotional efforts.
- Videos submitted by individuals only.
